

The VR Advantage When Selling A Business

VR's International Network of Professional Business Intermediary's offers 25 years of successful experience to the seller of a small or mid-size business around the world. Our tradition of bringing qualified buyers and committed sellers together is the cornerstone of the VR organization. VR boasts as being the only network of business intermediary's that requires a fulltime commitment on behalf of its franchisees and associates. VR has never allowed part-time offices or part-time associates to represent our clients, and makes the promise that it never will in the future. Our responsibility as a Franchisor is to grow our network, but at the same time we take our obligation to the general public seriously, therefore, we do not let part-time, work-at-home individuals market your business inside the VR network. That VR ADVANTAGE is why VR has sold more business in North America than anyone. If you made it a fulltime effort to build your business, it's important that a fulltime professional helps guide you through the process of selling it.

Every highly trained and experienced VR Business Intermediary is dedicated to your needs, and eager to share their knowledge and expertise with you. Choosing VR gives you the ability to continue to operate your business while we professionally market the opportunity to qualified buyers.
